Woodrow Wilson Expects the Democrats to Win In 1924

Former President Believes Platform of Winners Will be the League of Nations—Silent as to Personality of Candidate.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
(Copyright, 1923, United Press.)

Washington, June 6.—Woodrow Wilson foresees a sweeping Democratic victory at the polls in the next Presidential election.

The former President believes that the Democratic candidate will sweep the country on the issue of the League of Nations—that the United States become a member of the League.

The political status and plans of Woodrow Wilson probably constitute the most significant and important phase of this interesting world figure today.

Wilson's private prophecy regarding the next Presidential election and his hopes for American entrance into the League of Nations, naturally mean that he will support a man for the Democratic candidacy who will stand for membership of the United States in the League and, most probably, without reservations.

But Mr. Wilson is truly the enigma of the politicians. When the politicians think of him today they are playing with an unknown quantity.

Will Wilson take an active part in the Presidential campaign? Whom will Wilson support for the candidacy? These are the most usually heard political questions regarding the crippled, but international figure who sits quietly in the "Mystery House on S street" saying nothing.

Silent on Plans.

It can safely be said that at this writing Wilson has told no one his plans regarding the political situation. There is probably no one who knows whom he favors as the Democratic candidate, if, indeed, he himself has made up his mind on this question.

Woodrow Wilson wants a man who stands for the League of Nations as he sees it, but he is not yet saying who the man is. He is studying this question in the inner recesses of his thought. But there are certain depths to Mr. Wilson that he keeps sacred.

Mr. Wilson also is regarded as politically very wise in keeping silent in the present situation. He knows that he holds a strategic position in the coming Presidential campaign, and his Scotch canniness is keeping him silent until the time is ripe.

There is a most significant point in connection with Mr. Wilson's present position in the political situation, and especially in connection with his belief that the Democrats will send the next President to the White House—credence that those close to the ex-President place in his political prophecies.

He is reputed by those near him as "one of the keenest political prophets in the country." Those people say that his political prophecies "are uncanny and startle those who hear them and then see them proved."

A Political Prophet.

For example, Mr. Wilson, I am informed, accurately forecasted, and with the greatest detail, the results of the Congressional elections last November. He startled his friends by saying that Lodge would squeeze back into the Senate by only the barest maority.

Then, there is another consideration in thinking of Woodrow Wilson as a political factor. This is the grip he holds upon the emotions and sympathies of old friends because of his illness and isolation. A man close to Wilson had this to say to the writer:

"If Wilson should go out in a political campaign and walk across a platform with that limp of his, there would go up the greatest wave of sympathy that this country has ever known for any one man."

The former President shows keen interest in the political developments in Europe. What he thinks of the French invasion of the Ruhr is told in the next chapter.

GIRL BANDIT, FASHIONABLY DRESSED, KILLS CHICAGO MAN IN COLD BLOOD AS HE GOES TO AID OF ILL WIFE

Chicago, June 6.—A girl bandit who held up and killed Richard C. Tesmer, aged 46, an insurance adjuster, at his home last midnight, was hunted throughout Chicago and adjacent towns by police detectives today.

The girl, described by police as "slim, pretty and fashionably dressed," was accompanied by a young man of the "cake eater" type. The couple accosted Tesmer and his wife as the latter drove into their garage after an auto ride. "Hands up! Keep still, we want your money!" the girl ordered. She covered the couple while her companion searched the victims. Tesmer's wife became hysterical when the bandits demanded her wedding ring. Tesmer started towards his wife, evidently to comfort her. The girl shot him without warning and he died shortly afterward.

Danger of Split In G. O. P. Over World Court Past, Is Statement of Watson

Washington, D. C. June 6.—Danger of a serious split in the Republican Party over the World Court is gone, Senator Watson of Indiana said today after a conference with president Harding in the White House.

"There will be a reservation making it clear that the Court will not take us into the League of Nations," said Watson. "Neither President Harding nor the Seante wants to enter the League."

Watson predicted the Court proposal would be approved by the coming sessic of the Senate.

American Relief Will Be Dropped In Russia; Harvest Is Plentiful

Moscow, June 6.—The American Relief Administration in Russia will be completely withdrawn before the first of August, Colonel Haskell, in charge of the work, notified the Russian government today.

In a letter addressed to M. Kamlerev he stated the forecast of the forthcoming harvest indicates that Russia will have a substantial surplus of food over all needs.

"The American Relief Administration, therefore, feels," Haskell said, "that while there still will be the continuing problem of caring for waifs, orphaned children and the reconstruction of medical institutes, the period of famine really will be passed with the coming harvest."

Cousin Of Ex-President Wilson Dies At Age Of 72 At Franklin, Pa.

Franklin, Pa., June 6.—John A. Wilson, a cousin of ex-President Woodrow Wilson and for more than 25 years identified with the Galena Signal Oil Company, died here today after an illness of several weeks. He was 72 years old.

Mrs. Charles Roessner and daughter Marie, of Titusville, spent Tuesday in our stores.

House Concurs In Setting Quit Date At Wed., June 14th.

Harrisburg, June 6.—The House today concurred in the Senate resolution setting Thursday noon, June 14th for final adjournment of this session of the General Assembly.

Harrisburg, June 6.—When the administration code came before the House at noon today Representative Alexander, chief critic of the administration, objected to consderation on technical ground that a printer's error had changed the meaning of the bill. The administration forces were thrown into considerable confusion. A score of members surrounded the speaker and twice as many crowded around Alexander's seat.

Officials from the Attorney General's office and the Governor's office hurried over to take part in the general discussion. After a half hour's confusion the House recessed for another half hour with the understanding the code would be taken up again after recess.

Harrisburg, June 6.—The Senate today killed the Salus Bill, making unnecessary the removal of deposits to the main office in banking institutions where branch offices are located. The vote was 10 to 29.

Senator Varra of Allegheny voiced a strenuous objection to the bill as an attempt to establish branch banks. The branch bank bill was killed earlier in the session. Under the present law banks may maintain an office to receive and pay out funds. This was an effort to protect deposits, Varra said.

The bill granting compensation to disabled world war veterans and to insure them relief passed the Senate finally today and went to the House for concurrence.

Senator Mansfield of Allegheny introduced a bill increasing the funeral expense for burial of all deceased soldiers from $300 to $400 to permit the payment of $75 allowance by county commissioners.

Liveryman George Welch lost his favorite horse on Memorial Day.

This Started the Shrine Convention

When James S. McCandless (right), Imperial Potentate of the Shrine, arrived in Washington, D. C., from Honolulu and gripped the hand of Leonard P. Steuart, Illustrious Potentate of Almas Temple, Washington, the Shrine gathering was officially opened.

SECOND CHARGE OF MURDER IS MADE ON MRS. CREIGHTON

Newark, N. J., June 6.—A second murder indictment has been returned against Mary Creighton, pretty young Newark matron, who is already waiting trial on a chrge of poisoning her brother. The new indictment alleges that she caused the death of her mother-in-law by poison.

Chemists are now engaged in analyzing the stomach of her father-in-law, who died two years ago in an effort to determine whether he died from effect of poison.

The young woman, who became a mother for the second time just after her arrest, is scheduled to come to trial June 18th on a charge of killing her brother, Charles Raymond Avery, aged 18, by slow administration arsenic. Her husband, John, is charged with the same offense and will come to trial with her.

JUNIOR HIGH GOES "OVER THE TOP" IN FINAL BANK HOUR

With right royal enthusiasm and the type of purpose that characterizes the Junior High School pupils and their principal with his corps of teachers, the boys and girls put over their goal. It was to be no less than $4,000. This they just said they would have for a record. No failure would they permit. And so they did, for what they determine to accomplish, that thing must be done. And they did it with so much purpose, every one of them, and that's the glory of the Junior spirit, as to top off the year with a total of $4,293.89 by today's large banking that in itself was a tribute to the ability of the Juniors to do large things—$521.5".

MacGregor was at High last Monday morning, and talked the goal in talking terms, then they voiced their purpose in such fashion as to leave no doubt what they would accomplish. The prizes were displayed—new $5 Philadelphia Reserve Bank notes. Surely Principal Ross and his assistants have been honored in the fine spirit of this years' banking, and the responses of the students to their leadings. The boys and girls got this from MacGregor's appeal on Monday—"The discipline for life that comes from the habit of saving is worth more to an ambitious person than the dollar saved." Have you ever heard the Juniors sing the song "MacGregor"?

And the Juniors made some record in Banking $4,293.89.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN KILLED AT RAVENNA, OHIO IN AUTO SPILL

Ravenna, Ohio, June 6.—Two young women were killed and a man seriously injured early today as a result of an automobile skidding and overturning near Ravenna. The trio were returning from Milton Lake.

The dead are Ruth Summers, aged twenty-five and Sadie Sanders, aged twenty four, both of Ravenna.

William E. Croilius, aged twenty-nine, married of, Canton, Ohio, was brought to the hospital here in a critical condition. Sheriff Jones said he was investigating the accident.

An Innocent Sufferer

The baby knows nothing of crime. It knows only that there is night and day and that the world beyond it's mother's arms matters little. The mother, Mrs. Mary Creighton, 24, is held in the House of Detention at Newark, N. J., awaiting trial June 18 on charges growing out of the death of her brother, Charles Raymond Avery, who, police allege, was poisoned. The baby was born two weeks ago, after the mothers' arrest. She says she will name him after his father, John Creighton.

THE BASEBALL SEASON OPENS LOCALLY TOMORROW WITH HOME BOYS MAKING UP WHAT LOOKS LIKE A REAL TEAM

The baseball season in Clearfield will be pried open officially tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the best Philipsburg can afford will meet the local American Legion team at the Park.

The Philipsburg team has been playing for several weeks but this will be the "first time under fire" for Manager Pierce and his huskies this season. The boys have been practising zealously for some time and are not only in shape but rarin' to get at the enemy and a real old-fashioned Philipsburg-Clearfield ball game is sure to be the result.

The American Legion Band will head the parade to the Park and as the stores close for the first time for the season a big crowd should turn out.

Following is the line-up upon which Manager Pierce pins his hopes of success:—

Shope, right field.
Mahaffey, third base.
Robinson, short stop.
Pierce or Robinson, first base.
Heberling, second base.
Rowles, center field.
Lester, catch.
Fauver, pitch.

The above by no means is the regular line-up, for all men have to keep working and Mgr. Pierce will not tolerate any drones on the team. Changes may or will be made as the players develop and show class.

All the fans who are going to the Park in cars should line up on Market street toward First and move off promptly at 3:00 p. m. Everyone who is able should go out and give the boys a hand. They have been working every night to give Clearfield a team.

Tickets for game can be bought at drug stores and barber shops.

Philipsburg's lineup will be J. Almond, E. Stack, H. Stover, C. Waite, E. Goldthorpe, W. Adams, "Pep" Bratton, H. Townsend, J. Farr, E. Crago, A. Bailey and W. Johnson, all local men.

The real sensation of the season in Clearfield County is said to be the Grass Flat team which had a successful season last year. The Grass Flat team took the Philipsburg team into camp on Saturday by a score of 3 to 1 in a bang up game, both teams displaying a fine type of baseball. Grass Flat should have a whirl at the Clearfield team soon. The little mining town of the Cooper Township region is going to make them all step some.

Boy, 14 Suffered To Go To 'Bedbug' College For Want Of Mere $300 Bail

Unable to furnish the $300 bail set by James Finnegan, justice of the peace of Chester Hill, at the hearing given him Monday night, Albert Natters, of South Philipsburg, was taken to Clearfield jail this afternoon.

The boy, who is 14 or 15 years old, fired two shots at Samuel Stiffler, Jr., of Chester Hill, aged about 12 years, Sunday morning, one of the shots striking him on the forehead sidewise, tearing open the flesh across the forehead. He had a .22 calibre revolver and was about 150 feet from his human target when the shots were fired. With young Stiffler was a companion, Roy Mason. The injured lad was taken to the hospital.

According to stories told the Natters boy stepped from behind a bush near the Hillside tipple and with pistol in hand and in approved motion picture form ordered Stiffler and his companion to move on with the threat that if they failed to step lively he'd move them. The shots were then fired, it is charged.

Natters claims that he was shooting at a mark on a tree and that the ball glanced and hit Stiffler. The boy's father failed to appear at the hearing given him.—Philipsburg Journal.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ROUNDS ANOTHER MILESTONE PILOTED BY PHILIP B. REED

Another milestone was passed in the life of our very aggressive Commercial Club on Monday evening, when their newly elected officers assumed charge and pledged themselves to "carry on" the affairs of the club in the same whole-hearted manner that has characterized this organization since its inception. As usual there were about eighty sat down and when retiring president Frantz handed the gavel to Mr. P. B. Reed he was given a fine ovation. Mr. W. Elridge Brown was introduced as vice-president; Mr. Harry Evans succeeds himself as the efficient treasurer; and R. B. Brubaker will again wield the pen as worthy secretary.

In announcing his committees President Reed emphasized the importance of every man doing his duty in whatever capacity he was called upon and doing it promptly. His impressive inaugural speech showed that he meant business and that the Commercial Club will continue to be the influence for good in the community that it has been in the past. He recognized the resposibility of his position and requested the loyal support of each and every member.

Lloyd McDowell presented the retiring president with the Club's prize bull bedecked with all the blue ribbons it could carry.

The speaker of the evening was Mr J. H. Weston of one of the leading banking houses of Philadelphia who gave a truly educational treatise on the matter of "Safe and Sound Investing." He is the first of several speakers who have been arranged for to talk along these lines and the series is part of the campaign now being carried on by the Club to safeguard the investor.

Mr. McClure had as his guests five of the leading spirits of Woodland who have organized the Woodland Booster's Club and were drinking deeply of the spirit of the Commercial Club so that they could infuse their organization with a similar brand.

E. E. Smith To Open New Modern Store Room Tomorrow Eve.

E. E. Smith is moving his music store from its present location in the Nieman building on Second street to his fine new room at the corner of Third and Locust streets and will utilize all day tomorrow getting things in shape for the formal opening of his furniture and music store which is scheduled to take place tomorrow evening between the hours of 7 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. Smith's new store room is one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged business houses in Clearfield and is a credit to the town.

The commodious room is stocked with a fine line of new and up-to-date furniture and musical instruments and the opening will attract large crowds during the evening. Mr. Smith has arranged to have Benny Krueger's famous ten-piece Chicago orchestra on hands to supply sweetest music during the evening and accordingly invites everybody who can possibly do so to drop in and look the new place over.

Mr. Smith's new quarters are several times larger than his old store

LEGION'S FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION WILL BE THE WORK OF MANY MONTHS OF THE HARDEST KIND OF PREPARATION

The members of the John Lewis Shade post of the American Legion have been working quietly since the first of the year on their third annual celebration which will be held at the Clearfield Driving Park on July 4th, and their efforts assure us of the best and biggest celebration in Central Pennsylvania. The boys intend to eclipse their celebration of the past two years and are not sparing time nor expense in making this 4th Clearfield's biggest.

The program for the day will include a veteran's reunion, a military and industrial parade in which the town merchants and industries will give their heartiest co-operation, horse-racing, which they say will be the best ever seen in these parts; baseball, dancing, a guaranteed display of fireworks, airplane, the Geo. L. Dobyns Shows and other attractions.

A five-passenger Rickenbacker car will be given to one of the patrons of this year's celebration.

Celebrations of the past two years conducted by the local American Legion post assure the people of a real celebration on the 4th this year. The Progress will keep you informed as to the details.

"And went on the stage?"

"How'd you know?"

"I didn't. But—the [illegible] the usual refuge for [illegible] girls who are [illegible] I've [illegible] Did she— Was the [illegible] in Virginia?"

"Sure! [illegible] you knew her," Bud-dy cried.

"Perhaps I seem to remember the story. What is her name?"

"Arline Montague."

The elder man shook his head "You said something about [illegible] marriage. I dare say she married some [illegible] John whose family disapproved of the match—so many [illegible] girls have been deceived like that. You can't imagine the prejudice of those Fifth Avenue parents—"

"That's what she done. An' he went off an' joined the French Legion of Honor an' was killed."

"What is the estate you mentioned?"

"Oh, that's her own! It's all she had to fall back on. It's [illegible] tied up, now an' she'll [illegible] her money before long."

[illegible] [illegible] All that had [illegible] [illegible] Mind [illegible] [illegible] to become one of [illegible] [illegible]—she ain't [illegible] thing. She [illegible] [illegible] and but you'd never know [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] out for [illegible] that's what I like about [illegible] You and the [illegible] [illegible]. Mr. [illegible]"

"Well, rather! But [illegible] must [illegible] your [illegible] not only that you have been [illegible] but also the further good [illegible]"

"I— We better not say [illegible] about my gettin' married."

"Why not? They'd like [illegible]"

Buddy stirred uneasily. "Why, it's this way: I haven't [illegible] [illegible] Mollie she won't have me. If she says yes—I'll let 'em know."

"Good! We'll make it, for the time being, a mere message of reassurance. Tonight you and Miss Montague shall dine with me and we'll go to a theater."

Gray was prepared to find his young friend's light o' love superficially attractive, and she was all of that. He was not prepared, however, to find her quite as good an actress as she appeared to be. In spite of the fact that she probably took less pleasure in the meeting than did he, she admirably covered her feelings.

Gray's heart sank as he studied Miss Montague. She was blond—to his suspicious eye a trifle too blond—and she wore her hair bobbed. She was petite and, both in appearance and in mannerism, she was girlish; nevertheless, she was self reliant, and there was a certain maturity to her well rounded figure, a suggestion of weariness about her eyes, that told a story.

Following his first critical appraisal, Gray was vaguely conscious of something familiar about her; somewhere within him the chords of remembrance were lightly brushed; but try as he would he could not make himself believe that he had ever seen her.

GRAY'S HEART SANK AS HE STUDIED MISS MONTAGUE.

The elder man played host in his best and easiest style, both at dinner and at the theater; then he passed the burden of entertainment over to Buddy, first cheerfully declaring that he would not be sidetracked and that he intended to impose his company upon the young couple whether they wanted him or not. This was precisely to young Briskow's liking and soon they were speeding out to a road house mentioned earlier in the evening.

The resort was run on rather liberal principles; a number of flushed and noisy couples were dancing to the music of a colored orchestra. It was a "hip-pocket" crowd, and while there was no public drinking, the high-pitched volubility of the merrymakers was plainly of alcoholic origin.

Gray realized that he was in for an ordeal, for he had become too well known to escape notice. Consternation filled him, therefore, at thought of the effect of his presence here might have. But the music went straight to Buddy's feet; syncopation intoxicated him much as the throbbing of midnight drums and the pounding of tom-toms mesmerize a voodoo worshiper, and he whirled Miss Montague away in his arms without so much as an apology to his other guest.

There was nothing conservative about Buddy's dancing. He embellished his steps with capricious figures, and when he led his partner back to the table where he had left Gray, like a sailor marooned upon a thirsty atoll, he was red faced and perspiring; his enthusiasm was boiling over.

"Dawg-gone!" he cried. "Now, if we had something wet, eh? These pants is cut purpose for a brace of form-fittin' flasks but I left 'em in the room on account of you not drinkin', Mr Gray."

In spite of the fact that Ozark Briskow was compelled to sit out every alternate dance in a distressing condition of sobriety, he enjoyed himself for he was playing host to the one woman and the one man for whom he cared most.

CHAPTER XXI
Fight to the Finish

"WHY the S O S?" Mallow voiced this question as he entered Gray's hotel room early the following evening.

"Sit down and light up while I tell you about it." In a few sentences Gray made known the story of Ozark Briskow's infatuation, and the reason for his own interest therein. "The woman is of the common 'get rich quick' variety," he concluded, "and she won't do."

"She didn't pull the family estate and her father's slaves and the orange grove on you did she?"

"Oh no She used that on Buddy and he believes it implicitly We three are dining downstairs in an hour, perhaps you could look in on us?"

"Sure I'll give her the once over," Mallow agreed If she's anybody in our set I'll know her"

The dinner had scarcely started when Gray heard his name paged and left the table In the lobby Mallow was waiting with a grin upon his face

"Is that her?" he inquired.

"That is the girl"

"Girl? Arline Montague,' eh? Her name is Margie Fulton and she had her hair up when they built the Union Pacific."

"Nonsense! You're mistaken She can't be more than twenty five—thirty at most"

"A woman can be as young as she wants to be if she'll pay the price. Margie had her face tucked up two years ago. Cost her five thousand bucks."

"I—can't believe it."

"Those face surgeons have ironed the wrinkles out of many a withered peach, and you're dining with Margie Fulton, the Suicide Blonde. I know her kid."

"Her what?" Mallow's hearer gasped.

"Sure. She was married to Bennie Fulton, the jockey, and they had a boy. Bennie was ruled off in New Orleans and started a gambling house."

"New Orleans! Wait—I'm beginning to remember" Into Gray's mind came an indistinct memory; the blurred picture of a race track with its shouting thousands, a crowded betting ring then, more clearly a garish, over furnished room in a Southern mansion; clouds of tobacco smoke rising in the cones of bright light above roulette and poker tables, negro servants in white, with trays mint juleps in tall, frosted glasses; a pretty girl with straw colored hair— "You're right!" he agreed, finally. "She was a 'come-on.'"

"That's her She worked the betting ring daytimes and boosted in Bennie's place at night. Whenever she was caught she suicided. That's how she got her name."

"Just what do you mean by that?"

"Why, the usual stuff. A bottle of water with a poison label. If a mullet threatened to call the police, she'd cry, 'You have ruined my life!' Then with shaking hand she'd pull the old skull bottle and drink herself to death. Of course, the poor leaping tuna usually got the acid out of her hand in time to save her. She saw to that."

Gray was laughing silently. "My dear Professor," he confessed, "wisdom, of a sort, is mine; sometimes I grow weary with the weight of my experiences and wonder why the world so seldom shows me something new. But beside you I am as a babe. Tell me, what has become of the ex jockey husband?"

TAKE IN YOUR MILK AS SOON AS DELIVERED

These warm muggy mornings are mighty hard on milk that is left on the doorstep for an hour or so after the wagonman has made his deliveries,

You will find that your milk will not sour if you take the bottle in as soon as it is delivered and place it in a cool place, whether it is in your ice box or your cellar.

This will mean a saving of money for you and you will avoid much annoyance when you come to use your milk.

HAYMAKERS TO CELEBRATE

The Haymakers, that hard-working bunch of [illegible] making up a sort of [illegible] organization or auxiliary to Chinck[illegible]lamoosh tribe of Red Men, will journey to Goshen camp tomorrow afternoon and after erecting their wigwams, raising the tribal totem pole building the camp fires and donning their war paint will give the day and evening over to the having of a general good time.

The "Boss Driver" will be in charge aided by a lot of assistants, while the "Horn Blower" will also be [illegible] to summon the assemblage to [illegible] ferent orgies, ordeals, [illegible] strength, skill and cunning and about everything else the wily and red-blooded red man generally does when he lets himself out on pleasure bent.

There is going to be a hot time on the mountain Thursday afternoon and woe unto the paleface or "tramp" found upon the Goshen reservation without being properly vouched for.

The Haymakers will be hosts to all the Red Men and all are invited to be present

Mrs. Worrell Jones, who was operated on at the Clearfield Hospital last Friday is convalescing very nicely.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the grading, curbing guttering, draining and paving of that part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third street, in the Second Ward of the Borough of Clearfield Pennsylvania, and providing for the assessment and payment of the cost thereof.

Whereas a petition has been presented to the Burgess and Council of the Borough of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, by the present real owners of properties representing two-thirds in the number of feet of all the properties abutting on that part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third Street, in the Second Ward of said Borough, requesting the said Burgess and Council to grade, curb, gutter, drain, pave and otherwise improve said part of said street or avenue and agreeing to pay two thirds of the cost of said improvement:

Therefore be it ordained by the Council of the Borough of Clearfield in Council regularly assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same:

Section 1. That the part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third Street, in the Second Ward of the Borough of Clearfield, shall be graded as may be found necessary to give it an even and uniform surface and shall be curbed guttered, drained and paved with concrete of a uniform width of twenty feet between the curbs and the center line of the paving shall be in the center of said avenue.

Section 2 The grading, curbing guttering, draining and paving of said part of said street or avenue shall be done under the direction of the Borough Engineer The cost and expense of grading, curbing guttering draining and paving shall include all work and expense incidental thereto, such as grading, filling, curbing, guttering, draining, paving engineering, publishing ordinances, the cost of materials and labor and everything whatsoever that may be necessary in order to make a complete job; two thirds of the cost and expense of said improvement shall be paid by the owners of the properties abutting on said part of said street or said avenue and one third of the cost and expense of said improvement shall be paid by the Borough of Clearfield. The entire cost and expense shall be made up by the Borough Engineer of the Borough, of Clearfield and the pro rata share or assessment of each property owner shall be determined on the basis of the number of feet of the respective properties abutting on said part of said street or avenue, which assessments, if not promptly paid, shall be collected from the owners of the real estate abutting on said improvement in the manner provided by law.

Ordained and enacted this fourth day of June A. D. 1923.

GEORGE M. ROSSER
President of Council of the Borough of Clearfield

Attest:
J. D. CONNELLY,
Secretary.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The U. S. Gazette of June 2d, 1823, had the following to say regarding the proposed building of the Pennsylvania railroad:—

"The company for erecting an Iron Rail Road from Philadelphia to Columbia is about proceeding to obtain subscriptions in order to commence the work immediately. They propose to require the payment of $5 per share only, and to allow each subscriber to pay up the balance of his installments or not, at his option. He will, therefore, have an opportunity of seeing a part of the road actually built, and the experiment of its utility illustrated, and may then determine whether he will pay up the subsequent installments.

Rail Roads have long been in extensive use in Europe and are now proposed to be introduced in this country with many improvements. It is proposed to commence the road at this city (Philadelphia) and to continue it by Hamiltonville on a new route to Columbia. It is to be hoped that our citizens will encourage this experiment, which may be of the first importance to Philadelphia. Five dollars is a small sum to a citizen who has interests of any kind at stake in the community, or who duly appreciates the public welfare. Let us therefore, as Philadelphians, as Pennsylvanians, come forward to aid the respectable and hitherto successful projector in completing an experiment so important to us and to the whole country."

Take Vicks on Your Vacation

Nearly everybody uses Vicks for cold troubles, asthma, hay fever, catarrh or tonsilitis. These are inflammations of the air passages. But we forget that it's just as good for inflammations of the skin or muscles.

Take the familiar blue jar on your vacation and try it for sunburn, bruises, sprains, bites, stings, poison oak (poison ivy), cuts and scratches.

A news story announces that Douglas Fairbanks has a new leading lady. Not surprising. They change 'em often these days in the movie world.

Colonel House was bad enough but the House of Representatives is worse. Despite the fact that it has been in session for more than five months, and during that time has passed only one law of major importance, it now proposes to dispose of such simple matters as raising $20,000,000 in taxes and pass the administration code of 800 typewritten pages within the next seven days. Surely such self confidence is not inspired by past performance.

Tomorrow Clearfield and Philipsburg, old baseball rivals begin to fight it out for the season of 1923. It is a happy story for both towns that the teams are all home talent never having any has-been professionals in the line-up.

Keep it that way and we will have baseball.

Now if someone will devise some way to get rid of the fellow who thinks baseball is "razzing the umpire," knocking the manager and "betchu twenty" when he owes the butcher and the grocer, it will be a real pleasure to see the game.

John Shade Post American Legion has a reputation for doing things that it is careful to preserve. Their every effort has been crowned with success and Clearfield would indeed be but a dead city without the post, its band, its Independence day program and its Ladies' Auxiliary.

Today the post begins its 4th of July advertising campaign. Clearfield will enjoy such a Fourth as it has for the past two years, better than ever before and a royal good time in store for all.

Tell the family this evening, "We're going to Clearfield for the Fourth."

Pity Albert Natters of South Philipsburg, aged 14 or 15 now being held in the Clearfield jail, on charges of having shot another boy at Chester Hill last Sunday morning. Albert in jail, not for what he did, but because he had no friend willing to put up $300 bail for his appearance at court to answer the charge.

Pity Albert Natters because his father did not seem to care enough about him to appear at the hearing.

Go back far enough in your own life, if your memory serves you well, to the age of fourteen. Can you comprehend what your feelings would have been to be cast behind stone walls and steel bars at that age?

To many boys of that age the experience would be terrifying.

Hurrah! there is a time when a "feller needs a friend," especially when father falls down on the job.

No man loomed larger through the welter of the World during its closing months than Woodrow Wilson. He was the vain of the leaders of the allied powers, who were received by their constituents at the war's close. No American was in a better position to understand the post-war diplomacy of Europe. He could and still can say: "All of which I saw a part of which I was."

Of the voters of the United States, one section regards him today, as it did in 1919, as the inspired leader of a movement to bring peace to the war worn world. Another division believes him an idealistic dreamer, whose visions were dissolved by the sun of reality. The third group believe him a false prophet, who can only be followed to the grave menace of the Republic.

In 1921, when Mr. Harding was inaugurated President Mr. Wilson's health was so broken that he was unable to complete the usual courtesies tendered by a retiring to an incoming President, and was compelled to leave the capitol before the conclusion of the inaugural ceremonies. The world then believed him mortally stricken. But now, in the early summer of 1923. Mr. Wilson, while not in robust health, has so far recovered that he is able to devote his ample time, keen grasp and wide knowledge to the problems of America and the world. We believe the world, and the people of the United States in particular, are keenly interested in both the ideas and health of Mr. Wilson. We believe this is true, whether they are admirers, enemies or merely observers of current events. There for we are presenting in a series of four chapters an inside view of Mr. Wilson in 1923. The writer, A. L. Bradford, is a member of the Washington staff of the United Press.

The United Press is not attempting to present authorized statements from Mr. Wilson, but in a careful investigation, which has extended over many weeks and has reached to many persons who knew the former President well, it is able to publish CONFIRMED statements about the life and thoughts of Woodrow Wilson.

OVER A MILLION FREIGHT CARS LOADED IN MAY

Washington, June 6.—More than one million freight cars were loaded and moved during the last week in May.

A new record for this season of the year was set. It has only been exceeded in any season by two bigger weeks, both coming in the peak of the crop movement in the fall. Figures made public today by the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association says that the week of May 26th a total of 1,014,929 freight cars were loaded with merchandise.

DID A WONDERFUL THING FOR THIS TOWN

The American Legion performed a real service in bringing the picture "The Man Without A Country" to Clearfield. Yesterday afternoon the theatre was filled from stem to stern with radiant faced youngsters who at through the unwinding of the film wrapped in the enfolding maze of a patriotic fervor the like of which they had never experienced before. More than one fellow in that audience thot, 'Gee, Matt Nolan was in an awful fix, wasn't he?"

At eight o'clock every seat in the great theatre was filled and the audience of grown-ups are loud in their praises of the picture and the thoughtfulness of the Legion in bringing it here and showing it at such generous prices. The Legion desires to return thanks to the public who so generally patronized the show, to Proprietor Driggs and Manager Hartman who gave wonderful co-operation and help, the Legion Band and the special orchestra, as well as many others who contributed to this community patrtic endeavor which raised the standard of citizenship.

Peoria, Illinois, Man Put In Line For The Highest Shrine Honor

Washington, June 6.—Clifford Ireland of Peoria, Ill., today was elected Imperial Outer Guard in the Imperial Divan of the Mystic Shrine.

Ireland won the place over three other candidates. His election means that in eight years he will be elected Imperial Potentate of the order by succession.

Conrad C. Dykeman of Brooklyn, N. Y., today became Imperial Potentate, succeeding James S. McCandless of Honolulu.

MEETING TO DISCUSS MUSIC TOMORROW EVE

There will be a meeting in room 13 in the High School Thursday evening at 7.30 for the purpose of discussing the further development of community Music. Mr. Francis Wrede, Musical Organizer for National Community Service will be present and outline plans which will concern the work to be carried on by Clearfield Community Service during the next year. Anyone who is interested in this important phase of Community Service is urged to be present.

A TRIP DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS

That is the offering tonight and tomorrow night at the Driggs theatre in a big 12-reel feature that shows the life and excitement of the men who brave the dangers of the brine deep in fishing vessels. It is nothing unusual in these days of maritime commerce to cross the ocean but these pictures depict the scenes of a passing age in which men were bold and fearless; days when men battled with whales and other denizens of the deep for a livelihood. See "Down to the Sea in Ships" at the Driggs tonight or tomorrow night sure.

MOTHER'S PARTY AT REEDSVILLE FRIDAY

The next community party at Reedsville will be held at the School house Friday afternoon from two to four. This time it is a mothers' tea party for all Reedsville mothers whethers they have children attending that school or not. The teachers have prepared a short program by the children and the Community Service committee will serve light refreshments. These have been most pleasant affairs and it need not be stated that the invitation is general and cordial.

NEW GERMAN OFFER EXPECTED TODAY AT DUAL CONFERENCE

Paris, June 6.—The new German reparation offer probably will be taken up at the Franco-Belgian Ruhr conference this afternoon.

Chancellor Cuno's latest proposal to pay 1,500,000,000 gold marks a year for war damages, dispatched from Germany, is expected to arrive in time for consideration at the conference.

HORSE SHOE MELTING TONIGHT

Officers and interested members of the Horseshoe club are reminded of the meeting this evening at 7:30 at Fire Co. No. 1. This is a most important session as definite plans and policies for the local organization and its relation to the State will be settled.

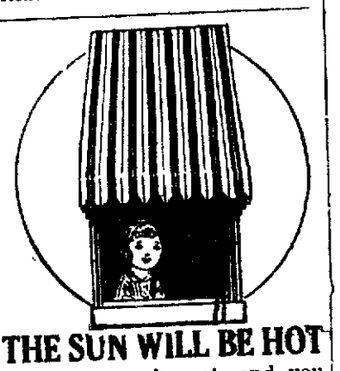

Scout Captains and Lieutenants will meet Mr. Flegal Thursday evening at 6:30 at the Scout home. As the action at this meeting decides whether this drill matter will be followed up, it is absolutely necessary that every person with any interest in the project be present. Present officers are asked to bring any ones who are tentatively thinking of taking a troop as this is a part of captain training that can be had in no other way.

Mrs. B. A. Brown and son have returned home from a two months' visit with relatives in Iowa.

The Fourth and Fifth Grade schools are picnicking today in the Driving Park.

Bill Levergood, of Jersey Shore, was a Clearfield visitor yesterday.

Miss Ruth Shaffer of Kingston, N. Y., who spent several weeks with friends in town, has returned home.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving and Some Clearfield People Know How to Save It.

Many Clearfield people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest kidney is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Clearfield citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. L. F. Wagner, 241 River St., says: "I have been troubled at times with severe pain in the small of my back. When I would lie down I could hardly get up again and I couldn't bend over. I had headaches, too. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved this condition and freed me of the backache and headache. Others in my family have used Doan's and they have always found the same good relief."

60c, at all dealers. Don't ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wagner had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fill glass full. Put on the Duplex Seal. With a quarter turn it locks air-tight, water-tight, germ-proof and mouse-proof.

The First Real Seal for a Jelly Glass

IT wasn't from choice that women put up with paper and string, tin tops, rubber rings—jelly drying out and losing some of it.

There just wasn't any better way. Until the New Atlas Jelly Glass with the celebrated Duplex Seal was produced.

Now a quarter turn of the wrist and the glass is sealed perfectly. Opens with the same easy motion. Re-seal as often as you like. What isn't eaten right away "keeps".

Millions of glasses of jelly were put up under the Duplex Seal last season. Put up with less effort—put up to keep better.

Naturally women are quick to want a glass that makes putting up jellies so much easier and surer. So to get your supply, order early from your dealer.

The COUNTY NATIONAL BANK of Clearfield

COMMERCIAL BANKING SERVICE

The most important function of the Commercial Bank is to lend money as its customers require it to develop or enlarge their business, or to maintain their credit by discounting bills.

Knowledge of the needs of business men comes from long service to the business community.

Ability to lend needed funds requires large invested capital and efficient management of the bank's funds.

The County National has capital and surplus of over $1,300,000. Its officers and directors are business men of long and wide experience.

For more than a quarter of a century it has not refused to make a loan on account of lack of available funds.

Its officers invite conferences with business men desiring a connection with an ably managed commercial bank.

FOREST FIRE BURNING AGAIN

The forest fire, which had pretty well ravaged the country in the vicinity of Patchell run, but which had been pretty well put out by the rains of Saturday and Sunday, managed to get away from the patrol on watch Monday and Tuesday morning and is again moving in the direction of the Caledonia Pike. A crew of men are again on the job trying to curb it and hope to have the fire under control by this evening.

This is the twelfth of a series of advertisements by The Atlantic Refining Company on the TRUTH ABOUT GASOLINE.

Where we do business

YOU see the familiar Atlantic Gasoline pump in five states of the Union, but that fact by no means indicates the limit of territory in which we do business. Rather, it indicates one of the ways in which Atlantic Gasoline is sold.

Atlantic Gasoline reaches the consumer by three principal methods:

(a) Through our own highly organized system of distribution direct to dealers and service stations, where it reaches the tank in your car or truck through pumps bearing the Atlantic sign.

(b) Through tank-car (bulk) deliveries to jobbers who sell it to their own retailing customers—frequently under their own brand name.

(c) Through tank-wagon or tank-car deliveries direct to large consumers—such as express, coal and taxicab companies, department and chain stores, manufacturers, etc.

In each case the business we do is secured under the keenest sort of competition with other refiners.

Atlantic products are sold for distribution in thirty-eight states, as below. Gasoline goes into twenty of them:

Alabama	Louisiana	Ohio
Arkansas	Maine	Oklahoma
California	Maryland	Oregon
Connecticut	Massachusetts	Pennsylvania
Delaware	Michigan	Rhode Island
Dist. of Columbia	Minnesota	South Carolina
Florida	Missouri	Tennessee
Georgia	Montana	Texas
Illinois	Nebraska	Vermont
Indiana	New Hampshire	Virginia
Iowa	New Jersey	West Virginia
Kansas	New York	Wisconsin
Kentucky	North Carolina

In addition, our business spreads over the following foreign countries:

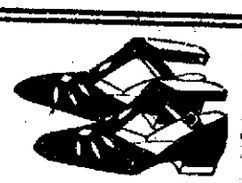

Argentina	Germany	Norway
Belgium	Great Britain	Portugal
Brazil	Holland	Spain
Canada	Ireland	Sweden
Denmark	Italy	Switzerland
France	New Zealand	Uruguay

Could there be better evidence to correct any statement or impression that this Company is not free to sell its products wherever favorable opportunity warrants and its facilities permit?

Curwensville's Own Column

Borough Council met in usual monthly session on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All members present, the Burgess included.

Considerable business was transacted, among which were a number of minor reports on sidewalks, drains and sewers, which consumed more time than was really necessary to dispose of them and place them under supervision of the proper committees. A resolution was passed ordering five large cans for the street, in which waste paper and other debris could be deposited. It is not intended that merchants along State street are to use these as a receptacle for banana skins, orange peel and other dirt that accumulates in and about their places of business.

An application was made for a sewer on West Centre street. It was ordained by vote to put in said sewerage system starting from Susquehanna avenue and continuing to west end of Centre street, the cost of same to be apportioned to the property owners along said line. An ordinance was ordered to be drafted authorizing the same to be done.

Petition was presented asking that Thompson street from State to north line of Meadow street be paved. This application bore the signatures of more than two-thirds of the property owners. Council acted favorably to this proposition, with the understanding that applicants pay for all gutters and two-thirds of paving work, borough to furnish the bricks and pay one-third of the cost. Ordinance ordered to be drafted to cover authorization of this improvement.

It was decided for borough to place another inlet pipe at the Walker garage in order to take care of surplus water at high tide, as on these occasions the water enters and floods the garage.

Speeding signs were ordered to be placed along Susquehanna avenue as far out as the entrance gate to the Park. This seems to be a radical piece of folly as there is no attention paid to the speed signs that have already been placed on the streets in different sections of the town, and it is not likely that autoists will observe those to be posted so far out of police observation.

Street Commissioner Dale was instructed to proceed and erect a fence on the rear line of Park separating from the Irvin line. Also to build fence in the Park in order that automobiles cannot utilize the driveways and walks for a race track or parking ground.

The park committee was duly authorized to make sale of all trees that had been blown down and to clear away all brush and to make several necessary roads and driveways. This is a rehash of a resolution that was passed by Council at a meeting several months ago, but no movement has been made to have it accomplished.

Council authorized the painting on State street, 50 feet west of Filbert street to Walnut street, lines indicating parking stalls.

Final settlement for paving South Filbert street and Susquehanna avenue was made and balance of debt cleared up by payment of $2,032.33, and taking the work off the hands of the contractors.

A number of minor bills for material, repairs and road work, including police salary $100 and street commissioner salary, $100, presented, read and finally ordered to be paid.

Water Commissioner Frankhouser went to a house at Naulton on Monday evening to examine and adjust some pipes. He entered without the formality of knocking. This angered the occupant, Sandro Pinelli, who made an assault with a hatchet. He was brought before 'Squire Dale by Chief Clark and at the hearing the evidence was conclusive enough to hold him for a court trial on the charge of assault and battery. A $200 bail bond was furnished by some friends of Pinelli who had no desire to see him carted off to Fort Lowell.

James L. Smith, wife and children leave for Pittsburgh today via auto. Mr. Smith, we understand, goes to the city to consult a specialist and take a treatment for his nervous condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Davidson and daughter, after a brief visit in Curwensville, departed today for their new home in Chicago. Arch says that the Progress will follow them as the family would not feel at home unless they got the Curwensville news daily.

The Curwensville Progress penman received a letter yesterday for Clair D. Ross, Clearfield, in which he makes this statement: "I noted in the Progress your record of a flock of hens in Curwensville. I have 18 pullets and 4 yearlings, White Leghorn, that laid in May 501 eggs, and from Dec 1 to June 1, 2354 eggs."

Samuel Bowers, of Pittsburgh, a brother of Charles and William Bowers, South Side, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. John Bowers, Scofield street.

Robert Atcheson, a carpenter by profession, will soon commence the erection of a dwelling house on a plot of ground at Reservoir Terrace.

Joe Lines can now be rated as a regular promoter. Monday afternoon he opened up a quick lunch room next to the Norris barber shop. At six o'clock the same day he sold the good will and outfit to Jim Booth and Jos Whittaker, who will make an effort to appease the flagging appetites of all who feel disposed to be fed.

Ira Shaffer and wife went over to DuBois last Saturday and spent several days visiting with a son and daughter who reside in that city of pretension.

An Italian family, Dominico by title, has purchased the Taylor dwelling house on South Filbert street, now occupied by Mr. Edwards.

All Curwensville stores, with a few exceptions perhaps, will close their business places on Thursday afternoons from June until August. Cards are displayed in windows reading to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweney motored over to Philipsburg today for the sole purpose of assisting in the eleventh birthday anniversary of their only son, Frederick, who is visiting relatives in that city.

Elliot Kratzer came up from his home in Bedford county yesterday for a visit with his grandfather, Captain J. Elliot Kratzer.

Mrs. Lawrence Dale is reported as being very ill at her home near Bridgeport. Her relatives and friends entertain no hope for recovery.

ELMER CLIFTON'S
"DOWN to the SEA in SHIPS"

First came "The Birth of a Nation," which astounded all of us. Then the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which startled us. This was followed by "Way Down East," a production that thrilled us; but it remained for "Down to the Sea in Ships" to overwhelm us.

IT CONTAINS THE SUPREME THRILL OF PICTURE HISTORY

There never has been, there may never be again, a motion picture that for sheer daring overwhelms the spectator in the manner of "Down to the Sea in Ships." Here is nature at her mightiest; a slip spells death, and events well nigh unbelievable in their terror-inspiring results take place apparently within a few feet of the astounded audience.

Woodrow Wilson Expects the Democrats to Win In 1924

Former President Believes Platform of Wingers Will be the League of Nations—Silent as to Personality of Candidate.

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
(Copyright, 1923, United Press.)

Washington, June 6.—Woodrow Wilson foresees a sweeping Democratic victory at the polls in the next Presidential election.

The former President believes that the Democratic candidate will sweep the country on the issue of the League of Nations—that the United States become a member of the League.

The political status and plans of Woodrow Wilson probably constitute the most significant and important phase of this interesting world figure today.

Wilson's private prophecy regarding the next Presidential election and his hopes for American entrance into the League of Nations, naturally mean that he will support a man for the Democratic candidacy who will stand for membership of the United States in the League and, most probably, without reservations.

But Mr. Wilson is truly the enigma of the politicians. When the politicians think of him today they are playing with an unknown quantity.

Will Wilson take an active part in the Presidential campaign? Whom will Wilson support for the candidacy? These are the most usually heard political questions regarding the crippled, but international figure who sits quietly in the "Mystery House on S street" saying nothing.

Silent on Plans.

It can safely be said that at this writing Wilson has told no one his plans regarding the political situation. There is probably no one who knows whom he favors as the Democratic candidate, if, indeed, he himself has made up his mind on this question.

Woodrow Wilson wants a man who stands for the League of Nations as he sees it, but he is not yet saying who the man is. He is studying this question in the inner recesses of his thought. But there are certain depths to Mr. Wilson that he keeps sacred.

Mr. Wilson also is regarded as politically very wise in keeping silent on the present situation. He knows that he holds a strategic position in the coming Presidential campaign, and his Scotch cannie ness is keeping him silent until the time is ripe.

There is a most significant point in connection with Mr. Wilson's present position in the political situation, and especially in connection with his belief that the Democrats will send the next President to the White House—credence that those close to the ex-President place in his political prophecies.

He is reputed by those near him as "one of the keenest political prophets in the country." Those people say that his political prophecies "are uncanny and startle those who hear them and then see them proved."

A Political Prophet.

For example, Mr. Wilson, I am informed, accurately forecasted, and with the greatest detail, the results of the Congressional elections last November. He startled his friends by saying that Lodge would squeeze back into the Senate by only the barest majority.

Then, there is another consideration in thinking of Woodrow Wilson as a political factor. This is the grip he holds upon the emotions and sympathies of old friends because of his illness and isolation. A man close to Wilson had this to say to the writer:

"If Wilson should go out in a political campaign and walk across a platform with that limp of his, there would go up the greatest wave of sympathy that this country has ever known for any one man."

The former President shows keen interest in the political developments in Europe. What he thinks of the French invasion of the Ruhr is told in the next chapter.

GIRL BANDIT, FASHIONABLY DRESSED, KILLS CHICAGO MAN IN COLD BLOOD AS HE GOES TO AID OF ILL WIFE

Chicago, June 6.—A girl bandit who held up and killed Richard C. Tesmer, aged 46, an insurance adjuster, at his home last midnight, was hunted throughout Chicago and adjacent towns by police detectives today.

The girl, described by police as "slim, pretty and fashionably dressed," was accompanied by a young man of the "cake eater" type. The couple accosted Tesmer and his wife as the latter drove into their garage after an auto ride. "Hands up! Keep still, we want your money!" the girl ordered. She covered the couple while her companion searched the victims. Tesmer's wife became hysterical when the bandits demanded her wedding ring. Tesmer started towards his wife, evidently to comfort her. The girl shot him without warning and he died shortly afterward.

Danger of Split In G. O. P. Over World Court Past, Is Statement of Watson

Washington, D. C. June 6.—Danger of a serious split in the Republican Party over the World Court is gone, Senator Watson of Indiana said today after a conference with president Harding in the White House.

"There will be a reservation making it clear that the Court will not take us into the League of Nations," said Watson. "Neither President Harding nor the Seante wants to enter the League."

Watson predicted the Court proposal would be approved by the coming session of the Senate.

American Relief Will Be Dropped In Russia; Harvest Is Plentiful

Moscow, June 5.—The American Relief Administration in Russia will be completely withdrawn before the first of August, Colonel Haskell, in charge of the work, notified the Russian government today.

In a letter addressed to M. Kamlerev he stated the forecast of the forthcoming harvest indicates that Russia will have a substantial surplus of food over all needs.

"The American Relief Administration, therefore, feels," Haskell said, "that while there still will be the continuing problem of caring for waifs, orphaned children and the reconstruction of medical institutes, the period of famine really will be passed with the coming harvest."

Cousin Of Ex-President Wilson Dies At Age Of 72 At Franklin, Pa.

Franklin, Pa., June 6.—John A. Wilson, a cousin of ex-President Woodrow Wilson and for more than 25 years identified with the Galena Signal Oil Company, died here today after an illness of several weeks. He was 72 years old.

Mrs. Charles Roessner and daughter Marie, of Titusville, spent Tuesday in our stores.

House Concurs In Setting Quit Date At Wed., June 14th.

Harrisburg, June 6.—The House today concurred in the Senate resolution setting Thursday noon, June 14th for final adjournment of this session of the General Assembly.

Harrisburg, June 6.—When the administration code came before the House at noon today Representative Alexander, chief critic of the administration, objected to consderation on technical ground that a printer's error had changed the meaning of the bill. The administration forces were thrown into considerable confusion. A score of members surrounded the speaker and twice as many crowded around Alexander's seat.

Officials from the Attorney General's office and the Governor's office hurried over to take part in the general discussion. After a half hour's confusion the House recessed for another half hour with the understanding the code would be taken up again after recess.

Harrisburg, June 6.—The Senate today killed the Salus Bill, making unnecessary the removal of deposits to the main office in banking institutions where branch offices are located. The vote was 10 to 29.

Senator Varra of Allegheny voiced a strenuous objection to the bill as an attempt to establish branch banks. The branch bank bill was killed earlier in the session. Under the present law banks may maintain an office to receive and pay out funds. This was an effort to protect deposits, Varra said.

The bill granting compensation to disabled world war veterans and to insure them relief passed the Senate finally today and went to the House for concurrence.

Senator Mansfield of Allegheny introduced a bill increasing the funeral expense for burial of all deceased soldiers from $300 to $400 to permit the payment of $75 allowance by county commissioners.

Liveryman George Welch lost his favorite horse on Memorial Day.

This Started the Shrine Convention

When James S. McCandless (right), Imperial Potentate of the Shrine, arrived in Washington, D. C., from Honolulu and gripped the hand of Leonard P. Steuart, Illustrious Potentate of Almas Temple, Washington, the Shrine gathering was officially opened.

SECOND CHARGE OF MURDER IS MADE ON MRS. CREIGHTON

Newark, N. J., June 6.—A second murder indictment has been returned against Mary Creighton, pretty young Newark matron, who is already waiting trial on a chrge of poisoning her brother. The new indictment alleges that she caused the death of her mother-in-law by poison.

Chemists are now engaged in analyzing the stomach of her father-in-law, who died two years ago in an effort to determine whether he died from effect of poison.

The young woman, who became a mother for the second time just after her arrest, is scheduled to come to trial June 18th on a charge of killing her brother, Charles Raymond Avery, aged 18, by slow administration arsenic. Her husband, John, is charged with the same offense and will come to trial with her.

JUNIOR HIGH GOES "OVER THE TOP" IN FINAL BANK HOUR

With right royal enthusiasm and the type of purpose that characterizes the Junior High School pupils and their principal with his corps of teachers, the boys and girls put over their goal. It was to be no less than $4,000. This they just said they would have for a record. No failure would they permit. And so they did, for what they determine to accomplish, that thing must be done. And they did it with so much purpose, every one of them, and that's the glory of the Junior spirit, as to top off the year with a total of $4,293.89 by today's large banking that in itself was a tribute to the ability of the Juniors to do large things—$521.5?.

MacGregor was at High last Monday morning, and talked the goal in taking terms, then they voiced their purpose in such fashion as to leave no doubt what they would accomplish. The prizes were displayed—new $5 Philadelphia Reserve Bank notes. Surely Principal Ross and his assistants have been honored in the fine spirit of this years' banking, and the responses of the students to their leadings. The boys and girls got this from MacGregor's appeal on Monday—"The discipline for life that comes from the habit of saving is worth more to an ambitious person than the dollar saved." Have you ever heard the Juniors sing the song "MacGregor"?

And the Juniors made some record in Banking $4,293.89.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN KILLED AT RAVENNA, OHIO IN AUTO SPILL

Ravenna, Ohio, June 6.—Two young women were killed and a man seriously injured early today as a result of an automobile skidding and overturning near Ravenna. The trio were returning from Milton Lake.

The dead are Ruth Summers, aged twenty-five and Sadie Sanders, aged twenty four, both of Ravenna.

William E. Croillius, aged twenty-nine, married of Canton, Ohio, was brought to the hospital here in a critical condition. Sheriff Jones said he was investigating the accident.

An Innocent Sufferer

The baby knows nothing of crime. It knows only that there is night and day and that the world beyond it's mother's arms matters little. The mother, Mrs. Mary Creighton, 24, is held in the House of Detention at Newark, N. J., awaiting trial June 18 on charges growing out of the death of her brother, Charles Raymond Avery, who, police allege, was poisoned. The baby was born two weeks ago, after the mothers' arrest. She says she will name him after his father, John Creighton.

THE BASEBALL SEASON OPENS LOCALLY TOMORROW WITH HOME BOYS MAKING UP WHAT LOOKS LIKE A REAL TEAM

The baseball season in Clearfield will be pried open officially tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when the best Philipsburg can afford will meet the local American Legion team at the Park.

The Philipsburg team has been playing for several weeks but this will be the "first time under fire" for Manager Pierce and his huskies this season. The boys have been practising zealously for some time and are not only in shape but rarin' to get at the enemy and a real old-fashioned Philipsburg-Clearfield ball game is sure to be the result.

The American Legion Band will head the parade to the Park and as the stores close for the first time for the season a big crowd should turn out.

Following is the line-up upon which Manager Pierce pins his hopes of success:—

Shope, right field.
Mahaffey, third base.
Robinson, short stop.
Pierce or Robinson, first base.
Heberling, second base.
Rowles, center field.
Lester, catch.
Fauver, pitch.

The above by no means is the regular line-up, for all men have to keep working and Mgr. Pierce will not tolerate any drones on the team. Changes may or will be made as the players develop and show class.

All the fans who are going to the Park in cars should line up on Market street toward First and move off promptly at 3:00 p. m. Everyone who is able should go out and give the boys a hand. They have been working every night to give Clearfield a team.

Tickets for game can be bought at drug stores and barber shops.

Philipsburg's lineup will be J. Almond, E. Stack, H. Stover, C. Waite, E. Goldthorpe, W. Adams, "Pep" Bratton, H. Townsend, J. Farr, E. Crago, A. Bailey and W. Johnson, all local men.

The real sensation of the season in Clearfield County is said to be the Grass Flat team which had a successful season last year. The Grass Flat team took the Philipsburg team into camp on Saturday by a score of 3 to 1 in a bang up game, both teams displaying a fine type of baseball. Grass Flat should have a whirl at the Clearfield team soon. The little mining town of the Cooper Township region is going to make them all step some.

Boy, 14 Suffered To Go To 'Bedbug' College For Want Of Mere $300 Bail

Unable to furnish the $300 bail set by James Finnegan, justice of the peace of Chester Hill, at the hearing given him Monday night, Albert Natters, of South Philipsburg, was taken to Clearfield jail this afternoon.

The boy, who is 14 or 15 years old, fired two shots at Samuel Stiffler, Jr., of Chester Hill, aged about 12 years, Sunday morning, one of the shots striking him on the forehead sidewise, tearing open the flesh across the forehead. He had a .22 calibre revolver and was about 150 feet from his human target when the shots were fired. With young Stiffler was a companion, Roy Mason. The injured lad was taken to the hospital.

According to stories told the Natters boy stepped from behind a bush near the Hillside tipple and with pistol in hand and in approved motion picture form ordered Stiffler and his companion to move on with the threat that if they failed to step lively he'd move them. The shots were then fired, it is charged.

Natters claims that he was shooting at a mark on a tree and that the ball glanced and hit Stiffler. The boy's father failed to appear at the hearing given him.—Philipsburg Journal.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ROUNDS ANOTHER MILESTONE PILOTED BY PHILIP B. REED

Another milestone was passed in the life of our very aggressive Commercial Club on Monday evening when their newly elected officers assumed charge and pledged themselves to "carry on" the affairs of the club in the same whole-hearted manner that has characterized this organization since its inception. As usual there were about eighty sat down and when retiring president Frantz handed the gavel to Mr. P. B. Reed he was given a fine ovation. Mr. W. Elridge Brown was introduced as vice-president; Mr. Harry Evans succeeds himself as the efficient treasurer; and R. B. Brubaker will wield the pen as worthy secretary.

In announcing his committees President Reed emphasized the importance of every man doing his duty in whatever capacity he was called upon and doing it promptly. His impressive inaugural speech showed that he meant business and that the Commercial Club will continue to be the influence for good in the community that it has been in the past. He recognized the resposibility of his position and requested the loyal support of each and every member.

Lloyd McDowell presented the retiring president with the Club's prize bull bedecked with all the blue ribbons it could carry.

The speaker of the evening was Mr J. H. Weston of one of the leading banking houses of Philadelphia who gave a truly educational treatise on the matter of "Safe and Sound Investing." He is the first of several speakers who have been arranged for to talk along these lines and the series is part of the campaign now being carried on by the Club to safeguard the investor.

Mr. McClure had as his guests five of the leading spirits of Woodland who have organized the Woodland Booster's Club and were drinking deeply of the spirit of the Commercial Club so that they could infuse their organization with a similar brand.

E. E. Smith To Open New Modern Store Room Tomorrow Eve.

E. E. Smith is moving his music store from its present location in the Nieman building on Second street to his fine new room at the corner of Third and Locust streets and will utilize all day tomorrow getting things in shape for the formal opening of his furniture and music store which is scheduled to take place tomorrow evening between the hours of 7 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. Smith's new store room is one of the handsomest and most conveniently arranged business houses in Clearfield and is a credit to the town.

The commodious room is stocked with a fine line of new and up-to-date furnitnre and musical instruments and the opening will attract large crowds during the evening. Mr. Smith has arranged to have Benny Krueger's famous ten-piece Chicago orchestra on hands to supply sweetest music during the evening and accordingly invites everybody who can possibly do so to drop in and look the new place over.

Mr. Smith's new quarters are several times larger than his old store

LEGION'S FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION WILL BE THE WORK OF MANY MONTHS OF THE HARDEST KIND OF PREPARATION

The members of the John Lewis Shade post of the American Legion have been working quietly since the first of the year on their third annual celebration which will be held at the Clearfield Driving Park on July 4th, and their efforts assure us of the best and biggest celebration in Central Pennsylvania. The boys intend to eclipse their celebration of the past two years and are not sparing time nor expense in making this 4th Clearfield's biggest.

The program for the day will include a veteran's reunion, a military and industrial parade in which the town merchants and industries will give their heartiest co-operation, horse-racing, which they say will be the best ever seen in these parts; baseball, dancing, a guaranteed display of fireworks, airplane, the Geo. L. Dobyns Shows and other attractions.

A five-passenger Rickenbacker car will be given to one of the patrons of this year's celebration.

Celebrations of the past two years conducted by the local American Legion post assure the people of a real celebration on the 4th this year. The Progress will keep you informed as to the details.

"How'd you know?"

"I didn't. But—the stage is the usual refuge for convent-bred girls who are abused. I've met several. Did she— Was the old home in Virginia?"

"Sure! I reckon you know her!" Buddy cried.

"Perhaps. I seem to remember the story. What is her name?"

"Arline Montague."

The elder man shook his head. "You said something about a marriage. I dare say she married some rich John whose family disapproved of the match—so many stout girls have been deceived like that. You can't imagine the prejudice of those Fifth Avenue parents—"

"That's what she done. An' he went off an' joined the French Legion of Honor an' was killed."

"What is the estate you mentioned?"

Buddy stirred uneasily. "... It's that way: I haven't asked her ..."

Mollie she won't have me. If she says yes—I'll let 'em know."

"Good! We'll make it, for the time being, a mere message of reassurance. Tonight you and Miss Montague shall dine with me and we'll go to a theater."

Gray was prepared to find his young friend's light o' love superficially attractive, and she was all of that. He was not prepared, however, to find her quite as good an actress as she appeared to be. In spite of the fact that she probably took less pleasure in the meeting than did he, she admirably covered her feelings.

Gray's heart sank as he studied Miss Montague. She was blond—to his suspicious eye a trifle too blond—and she wore her hair bobbed. She was petite and, both in appearance and in mannerism, she was girlish; nevertheless, she was self reliant, and there was a certain maturity to her well rounded figure, a suggestion of weariness about her eyes, that told a story.

Following his first critical appraisal, Gray was vaguely conscious of something familiar about her; somewhere within him the chords of remembrance were lightly brushed; but try as he would he could not make himself believe that he had ever seen her.

GRAY'S HEART SANK AS HE STUDIED MISS MONTAGUE.

The elder man played host in his best and easiest style, both at dinner and at the theater; then he passed the burden of entertainment over to Buddy, first cheerfully declaring that he would not be sidetracked and that he intended to impose his company upon the young couple whether they wanted him or not. This was precisely to young Briskow's liking and soon they were speeding out to a road house mentioned earlier in the evening.

The resort was run on rather liberal principles; a number of flushed and noisy couples were dancing to the music of a colored orchestra. It was a "hip-pocket" crowd, and while there was no public drinking, the high-pitched volubility of the merrymakers was plain ly of alcoholic origin.

Gray realized that he was in for an ordeal, for he had become too well known to escape notice. Consternation filled him, therefore, at thought of the effect of his presence here might have. But the music went straight to Buddy's feet; syncopation intoxicated him much as the throbbing of midnight drums and the pounding of tom-toms mesmerize a voodoo worshiper, and he whirled Miss Montague away in his arms without so much as an apology to his other guest.

There was nothing conservative about Buddy's dancing. He embellished his steps with capricious figures, and when he led his partner back to the table where he had left Gray, like a sailor marooned upon a thirsty atoll, he was red faced and perspiring; his enthusiasm was boiling over.

"Dawg-gone!" he cried. "Now, if we had something wet, eh? These pants is cut purpose for a brace of form-fittin' flasks but I left 'em in the room on account of you not drinkin', Mr Gray."

In spite of the fact that Ozark Briskow was compelled to sit out every alternate dance in a distressing condition of sobriety, he enjoyed himself for he was playing host to the one woman and the one man for whom he cared most.

CHAPTER XXI

Fight to the Finish

"WHY the S O S?" Mallow voiced this question as he entered Gray's hotel room early the following evening.

"Sit down and light up while I tell you about it." In a few sentences Gray made known the story of Ozark Briskow's infatuation, and the reason for his own interest therein. "The woman is of the common 'get rich quick' variety," he conclud ed, "and she won't do."

"She didn't pull the family estate and her father's slaves and the orange grove on you did she?"

"Oh no. She used that on Buddy and he believes it implicitly. We three are dining downstairs in an hour, perhaps you could look in on us?"

"Sure. I'll give her the once over," Mallow agreed. "If she's anybody in our set I'll know her."

The dinner had scarcely started when Gray heard his name paged and left the table. In the lobby Mallow was waiting with a grin upon his face.

"Is that her?" he inquired.

"That is the girl."

"Girl? Arline Montague,' eh? Her name is Margie Fulton and she had her hair up when they built the Union Pacific."

"Nonsense! You're mistaken. She can't be more than twenty five—thirty at most."

"A woman can be as young as she wants to be if she'll pay the price. Margie had her face tucked up two years ago. Cost her five thousand bucks."

"I—can't believe it."

"Those face surgeons have ironed the wrinkles out of many a withered peach, and you're dining with Margie Fulton, the Suicide Blonde. I know her kid."

"Her what?" Mallow's hearer gasped.

"Sure. She was married to Bennie Fulton, the jockey, and they had a boy. Bennie was ruled off in New Orleans and started a gambling house."

"New Orleans! Wait—I'm beginning to remember." Into Gray's mind came an indistinct memory; the blurred picture of a race track with its shouting thousands, a crowded betting ring then, more clearly a garish, over furnished room in a Southern mansion; clouds of tobacco smoke rising in the cones of bright light above roulette and poker tables, negro servants in white, with trays mint juleps in tall, frosted glasses; a pretty girl with straw colored hair— "You're right!" he agreed, finally. "She was a 'come-on.'"

"That's her. She worked the betting ring daytimes and boosted in Bennie's place at night. Whenever she was caught she suicided. That's how she got her name."

"Just what do you mean by that?"

"Why, the usual stuff. A bottle of water with a poison label. If a mullet threatened to call the police, she'd cry, 'You have ruined my life!' Then with shaking hand she'd pull the old skull bottle and drink herself to death. Of course, the poor leaping tuna usually got the acid out of her hand in time to save her. She saw to that."

Gray was laughing silently. "My dear Professor," he confessed, "wisdom, of a sort, is mine; sometimes I grow weary with the weight of my experiences and wonder why the world so seldom shows me something new. But beside you I am as a babe. Tell me, what has become of the ex jockey husband?"

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY OF AMERICA

Tomorrow, Thursday, at St Andrews Episcopal Church at 7:30 p m, will be held the Admission Service of the Girls Friendly Society of America. This society is an international organization and is always organized in the Episcopal Church, although it carries with it no obligation to the church. It's members need belong to no church, but it Associates these women who work with the girls, must be communicants of the Church. There will be thirty girls admitted into full membership, they will receive the silver pin of the Society. They have been regular in attendance faithful in their work, and have earned the right to wear the pin.

There will be a procession of the girls, about sixty in all, in the Church, appropriate hymns will be sung, the Rector, Rev Mr. Hatch, will make a very short address to the members and give them their pins. It is the first service of its kind ever held in this Church, and we hope that all the friends, mothers and all, who may be interested, will attend.

On Friday of this week there will be a party at the American Legion Rooms, which have been most kindly put at our disposal, there will be ... for the younger girls, and dancing for the older girls. We consider that we are very fortunate in having Rockwell's splendid orchestra for the occasion. The party will be ably and properly chaperoned by the women of the Society. This is not a public dance, and only the members of the Society, or those who have been invited will be permitted to be present.

Mrs Ella Welch Kline is quite ill at her home on Bridge street.

TAKE IN YOUR MILK AS SOON AS DELIVERED

These warm muggy mornings are mighty hard on milk that is left on the doorstep for an hour or so after the wagonman has made his deliveries,

You will find that your milk will not sour if you take the bottle in as soon as it is delivered and place it in a cool place, whether it is in your ice box or your cellar.

This will mean a saving of money for you and you will avoid much annoyance when you come to use your milk.

HAYMAKERS TO CELEBRATE

The Haymakers, that hard-working bunch of "farmers" making up a sort of ... organization or auxiliary to Chinklacamoose tribe of Red Men, will journey to Goshen camp tomorrow afternoon and after erecting their wigwams, raising the tribal totem pole building the camp fires and donning their war paint will give the day and evening over to the having of a general good time.

The "Boss Driver" will be in charge aided by a lot of assistants, while "Horn Blower" will also be ... to summon the assemblage to different orgies, ordeals, feats of strength, skill and cunning and about everything else the wily and red-blooded red man generally does when he lets himself out on pleasure bent.

There is going to be a hot time on the mountain Thursday afternoon and woe unto the paleface or "tramp" found upon the Goshen reservation without being properly vouched for.

The Haymakers will be hosts to all the Red Men and all are invited to be present.

Mrs. Worrell Jones, who was operated on at the Clearfield Hospital last Friday is convalescing very nicely.

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the grading, curbing guttering, draining and paving of that part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third street, in the Second Ward of the Borough of Clearfield Pennsylvania, and providing for the assessment and payment of the cost thereof.

Whereas a petition has been presented to the Burgess and Council of the Borough of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, by the present real owners of properties representing two-thirds in the number of feet of all the properties abutting on that part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third Street, in the Second Ward of said Borough, requesting the said Burgess and Council to grade, curb, gutter, drain, pave and otherwise improve said part of said street or avenue and agreeing to pay two thirds of the cost of said improvement:

Therefore be it ordained by the Council of the Borough of Clearfield in Council regularly assembled, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by authority of the same:

Section 1. That the part of Leavy Avenue extending from Second Street to Third Street, in the Second Ward of the Borough of Clearfield, shall be graded as may be found necessary to give it an even and uniform surface and shall be curbed guttered, drained and paved with concrete of a uniform width of twenty feet between the curbs and the center line of the paving shall be in the center of said avenue.

Section 2 The grading, curbing guttering, draining and paving of said part of said street or avenue shall be done under the direction of the Borough Engineer The cost and expense of grading, curbing guttering draining and paving shall include all work and expense incidental thereto, such as grading, filling, curbing, guttering, draining, paving engineering, publishing ordinances, the cost of materials and labor and everything whatsoever that may be necessary in order to make a complete job; two thirds of the cost and expense of said improvement shall be paid by the owners of the properties abutting on said part of said street or said avenue and one third of the cost and expense of said improvement shall be paid by the Borough of Clearfield. The entire cost and expense shall be made up by the Borough Engineer of the Borough, of Clearfield and the pro rata share or assessment of each property owner shall be determined on the basis of the number of feet of the respective properties abutting on said part of said street or avenue, which assessments, if not promptly paid, shall be collected from the owners of the real estate abutting on said improvement in the manner provided by law.

Ordained and enacted this fourth day of June A. D. 1923.

GEORGE M. ROSSER
President of Council of the Borough of Clearfield

Attest:
J. D. CONNELLY,
Secretary.

Examined and approved this sixth day of June, A. D. 1923.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The U. S. Gazette of June 2d, 1823, had the following to say regarding the proposed building of the Pennsylvania railroad:—

"The company for erecting an Iron Rail Road from Philadelphia to Columbia is about proceeding to obtain subscriptions in order to commence the work immediately. They propose to require the payment of $5 per share only, and to allow each subscriber to pay up the balance of his installments or not, at his option. He will, therefore, have an opportunity of seeing a part of the road actually built, and the experiment of its utility illustrated, and may then determine whether he will pay up the subsequent installments.

Rail Roads have long been in extensive use in Europe and are now proposed to be introduced in this country with many improvements. It is proposed to commence the road at this city (Philadelphia) and to continue it by Hamiltonville on a new route to Columbia. It is to be hoped that our citizens will encourage this experiment, which may be of the first importance to Philadelphia. Five dollars is a small sum to a citizen who has interests of any kind at stake in the community, or who duly appreciates the public welfare. Let us therefore, as Philadelphians, as Pennsylvanians, come forward to aid the respectable and hitherto successful projector in completing an experiment so important to us and to the whole country."

Take Vicks on Your Vacation

Nearly everybody uses Vicks for cold troubles, asthma, hay fever, catarrh or tonsilitis. These are inflammations of the air passages. But we forget that it's just as good for inflammations of the skin or muscles.

Take the familiar blue jar on your vacation and try it for sunburn, bruises, sprains, bites, stings, poison oak (poison ivy), cuts and scratches.

A news story announces that Douglas Fairbanks has a new leading lady. Not surprising. They change 'em often these days in the movie world.

Colonel House was bad enough but the House of Representatives is worse. Despite the fact that it has been in session for more than five months, and during that time has passed only one law of major importance, it now proposes to dispose of such simple matters as raising $20,000,000 in taxes and pass the administration code of 800 typewritten pages within the next seven days. Surely such self confidence is not inspired by past performance.

Tomorrow Clearfield and Philipsburg, old baseball rivals begin to fight it out for the season of 1923. It is a happy augury for both towns that the teams are all home talent neither having any has-been professionals in the line-up.

Keep it that way and we will have baseball.

Now if someone will devise some way to get rid of the fellow who thinks baseball is "razzing the umpire," knocking the manager and wanting to "betchu twenty" when he owes the butcher and the grocer, it will be a real pleasure to see the game.

John Shade Post American Legion has a reputation for doing things that it is careful to preserve. Their every effort has been crowned with success and Clearfield would indeed be rather a dead city without the post, its band, its Independence Day program and its Ladies' Auxiliary.

Today the post begins its 4th of July advertising campaign. Clearfield will enjoy such a Fourth as it has for the past two years, better than ever before and a royal good time in store for all.

Tell the family this evening, "We're going to Clearfield for the Fourth."

Pity Albert Natters of South Philipsburg, aged 14 or 15 now being held in the Clearfield jail, on charges of having shot another boy at Chester Hill last Sunday morning. Albert is in jail, not for what he did, but because he had no friend willing to put up $300 bail for his appearance at court to answer the charge.

Pity Albert Natters because his father did not seem to care enough about him to appear at the hearing.

Go back far enough in your own life, if your memory serves you well, to the age of fourteen. Can you comprehend what your feelings would have been to be cast behind stone walls and steel bars at that age?

To many boys of that age the experience would be terrifying.

Truly there is a time when a "feller needs a friend," especially when father falls down on the job.

"No man loomed larger through the welter of the World War during its closing months than Woodrow Wilson. He was the van of the leaders of the allied powers, who were repudiated by their constituents at the war's close. No American is in a better position to understand the post-war diplomacy of Europe. He could and still can say: "All of which I saw and part of which I was."

Of the voters of the United States, one section regards him today, as it did in 1919, as the inspired leader of a movement to bring peace to the war worn world. Another division believes him an idealistic dreamer, whose visions were dissipated by the sun of reality. The third group believe him a false prophet, who can only be followed to the grave menace of the Republic.

In 1921, when Mr. Harding was inaugurated President Mr. Wilson's health was so broken that he was unable to complete the usual courtesies tendered by a retiring to an incoming President, and was compelled to leave the capitol before the conclusion of the inaugural ceremonies. The world then believed him mortally stricken. But now, in the early summer of 1923, Mr. Wilson, while not in robust health, has so far recovered as to be able to devote his ample time, keen grasp and wide knowledge to the problems of America and the world.

We believe the world, and the people of the United States in particular, are keenly interested in both the ideas and health of Mr. Wilson. We believe this is true, whether they are admirers, enemies or merely observers of current events. Therefore we are presenting in a series of four chapters an inside view of Mr. Wilson in 1923. The writer, A. L. Bradford, is a member of the Washington staff of the United Press.

The United Press is not attempting to present authorized statements from Mr. Wilson, but in a careful investigation, which has extended over many weeks and has reached to many persons who knew the former President well, it is able to publish CONFIRMED statements about the life and thoughts of Woodrow Wilson.

OVER A MILLION FREIGHT CARS LOADED IN MAY

Washington, June 6.—More than one million freight cars were loaded and moved during the last week in May.

A new record for this season of the year was set. It has only been exceeded in any season by two bigger weeks, both coming in the peak of the crop movement in the fall. Figures made public today by the Car Service Division of the American Railway Association says that the week of May 26th a total of 1,014,-929 freight cars were loaded with merchandise.

DID A WONDERFUL THING FOR THIS TOWN

The American Legion performed a real service in bringing the picture "The Man Without A Country" to Clearfield. Yesterday afternoon the theatre was filled from stem to stern with radiant faced youngsters who sat through the unwinding of the film wrapped in the enfolding maze of a patriotic fervor the like of which they had never experienced before. More than one fellow in that audience thot, "Gee, Matt Nolan was in an awful fix, wasn't he?"

At eight o'clock every seat in the great theatre was filled and the audience of grown-ups are loud in their praises of the picture and the thought fulness of the Legion in bringing it here and showing it at such generous prices. The Legion desires to return thanks to the public who so generally patronized the show, to Proprietor Driggs and Manager Hartman who gave wonderful co-operation and help, the Legion Band and the special orchestra, as well as many others who contributed to this community patriotic endeavor which raised the standard of citizenship.

Peoria, Illinois, Man Put In Line For The Highest Shrine Honor

Washington, June 6.—Clifford Ireland of Peoria, Ill., today was elected Imperial Outer Guard in the Imperial Divan of the Mystic Shrine.

Ireland won the place over three other candidates. His election means that in eight years he will be one Imperial Potentate of the order by succession.

Conrad C. Dykeman of Brooklyn, N. Y., today became Imperial Potentate, succeeding James S. McCandless of Honolulu.

MEETING TO DISCUSS MUSIC TOMORROW EVE

There will be a meeting in room 13 in the High School Thursday evening at 7.30 for the purpose of discussing the further development of community Music. Mr. Francis Wheeler, Musical Organizer for National Community Service will be present and outline plans which will concern the work to be carried on by Clearfield Community Service during the next year. Anyone who is interested in this important phase of Community Service is urged to be present.

A TRIP DOWN TO THE SEA IN SHIPS

That is the offering tonight and tomorrow night at the Driggs theatre in a big 12-reel feature that show the life and excitement of the men who brave the dangers of the brine deep in fishing vessels. It is nothing unusual in these days of maritime commerce to cross the ocean but these pictures depict the scenes of a passing age in which men were bold and fearless; days when men battled with whales and other denizens of the deep for a livelihood. See "Down to the Sea in Ships" at the Driggs tonight or tomorrow night sure.

MOTHER'S PARTY AT REEDSVILLE FRIDAY

The next community party at Reedsville will be held at the School house Friday afternoon from two to four. This time it is a mothers' tea party for all Reedsville mothers whethers they have children attending that school or not. The teachers have prepared a short program by the children and the Community Service committee will serve light refreshments. These have been most pleasant affairs and it need not be stated that the invitation is general and cordial.

NEW GERMAN OFFER EXPECTED TODAY AT DUAL CONFERENCE

Paris, June 6—The new German reparation offer probably will be taken up at the Franco-Belgian Ruhr conference this afternoon.

Chancellor Cuno's latest proposal to pay 1,500,000,000 gold marks a year for war damages, dispatched from Germany, is expected to arrive in time for consideration at the conference.

HORSE SHOE MELTING TONIGHT

Officers and interested members of the Horseshoe club are reminded of the meeting this evening at 7:30 at Fire Co. No. 1. This is a most important session as definite plans and policies for the local organization and its relation to the State will be settled.

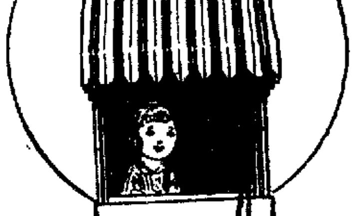

Scout Captains and Lieutenants will meet Mr. Flegal Thursday evening at 6:30 at the Scout home. As the action at this meeting decides whether this drill matter will be followed up, it is absolutely necessary that every person with any interest in the project be present. Present officers are asked to bring any ones who are tentatively thinking of taking a troop as this is a part of captain training that can be had in no other way.

Mrs. B. A. Brown and son have returned home from a two months' visit with relatives in Iowa.

The Fourth and Fifth Grade schools are picnicking today in the Driving Park.

Bill Levergood, of Jersey Shore, was a Clearfield visitor yesterday.

Miss Ruth Shaffer of Kingston, N. Y., who spent several weeks with friends in town, has returned home.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health Is Worth Saving and Some Clearfield People Know How to Save It.

Many Clearfield people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Weak kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has helped thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Clearfield citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. L. F. Wagner, 241 River St., says: "I have been troubled at times with severe pains in the small of my back. When I would lie down I could hardly get up again and I couldn't bend over. I had headaches, too. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved this condition and freed me of the backache and headache. Others in my family have used Doan's and they have always found the same good relief."

Fill glass full. Put on the Duplex Seal. With a quarter turn it locks air tight, water-tight, germ-proof and mouse-proof.

The First Real Seal for a Jelly Glass

IT wasn't from choice that women put up with paper and string, tin tops, rubber rings—jelly drying out and losing some of it.

There just wasn't any better way. Until the New Atlas Jelly Glass with the celebrated Duplex Seal was produced.

Now a quarter turn of the wrist and the glass is sealed perfectly. Opens with the same easy motion. Re-seal as often as you like. What isn't eaten right away "keeps".

Millions of glasses of jelly were put up under the Duplex Seal last season. Put up with less effort—put up to keep better.

Naturally women are quick to want a glass that makes putting up jellies so much easier and surer. So to get your supply, order early from your dealer.

The COUNTY NATIONAL BANK of Clearfield

COMMERCIAL BANKING SERVICE

The most important function of the Commercial Bank is to lend money as its customers require it to develop or enlarge their business, or to maintain their credit by discounting bills.

Knowledge of the needs of business men comes from long service to the business community.

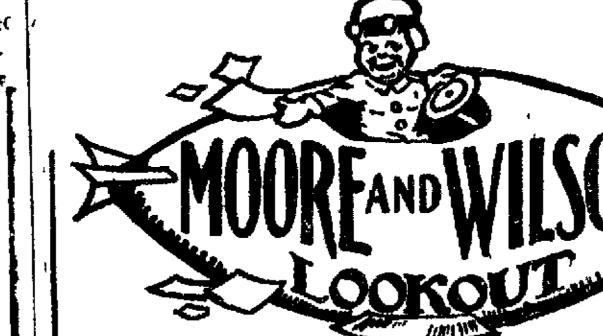

Ability to lend needed funds requires large invested capital and efficient management of the bank's funds.

The County National has capital and surplus of over $1,300,000. Its officers and directors are business men of long and wide experience.

For more than a quarter of a century it has not refused to make a loan on account of lack of available funds.

Its officers invite conferences with business men desiring a connection with an ably managed commercial bank.

FOREST FIRE BURNING AGAIN

The forest fire, which had pretty well ravaged the country in the vicinity of Patchell run, but which had been pretty well put out by the rains of Saturday and Sunday, managed to get away from the patrol on watch Monday and Tuesday morning and is again moving in the direction of the Caledonia Pike. A crew of men are again on the job trying to curb it and hope to have the fire under control by this evening.

This is the twelfth of a series of advertisements by The Atlantic Refining Company on the TRUTH ABOUT GASOLINE.

Where we do business

YOU see the familiar Atlantic Gasoline pump in five states of the Union, but that fact by no means indicates the limit of territory in which we do business. Rather, it indicates one of the ways in which Atlantic Gasoline is sold.

Atlantic Gasoline reaches the consumer by three principal methods:

(a) Through our own highly organized system of distribution direct to dealers and service stations, where it reaches the tank in your car or truck through pumps bearing the Atlantic sign.

(b) Through tank-car (bulk) deliveries to jobbers who sell it to their own retailing customers—frequently under their own brand name.

(c) Through tank-wagon or tank-car deliveries direct to large consumers—such as express, coal and taxicab companies, department and chain stores, manufacturers, etc.

In each case the business we do is secured under the keenest sort of competition with other refiners.

Atlantic products are sold for distribution in thirty-eight states, as below. Gasoline goes into twenty of them:

Alabama	Louisiana	Ohio
Arkansas	Maine	Oklahoma
California	Maryland	Oregon
Connecticut	Massachusetts	Pennsylvania
Delaware	Michigan	Rhode Island
Dist. of Columbia	Minnesota	South Carolina
Florida	Missouri	Tennessee
Georgia	Montana	Texas
Illinois	Nebraska	Vermont
Indiana	New Hampshire	Virginia
Iowa	New Jersey	West Virginia
Kansas	New York	Wisconsin
Kentucky	North Carolina

In addition, our business spreads over the following foreign countries:

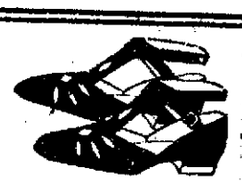

Argentina	Germany	Norway
Belgium	Great Britain	Portugal
Brazil	Holland	Spain
Canada	Ireland	Sweden
Denmark	Italy	Switzerland
France	New Zealand	Uruguay

Could there be better evidence to correct any statement or impression that this Company is not free to sell its products wherever favorable opportunity warrants and its facilities permit?

Curwensville's Own Column

Borough Council met in usual monthly session on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All members present, the Burgess included.

Considerable business was transacted, among which were a number of minor reports on sidewalks, drains and sewers, which consumed more time than was really necessary to dispose of them and place them under supervision of the proper committees. A resolution was passed ordering five large cans for the street, in which waste paper and other debris could be deposited. It is not intended that merchants along State street are to use these as a receptacle for banana skins, orange peel and other dirt that accumulates in and about their places of business.

An application was made for a sewer on West Centre street. It was ordained by vote to put in said sewerage system starting from Susquehanna avenue and continuing to west end of Centre street, the cost of same to be apportioned to the property owners along said line. An ordinance was ordered to be drafted authorizing the same to be done.

Petition was presented asking that Thompson street from State to north line of Meadow street be paved. This application bore the signatures of more than two-thirds of the property owners. Council acted favorably to this proposition, with the understanding that applicants pay for all gutters and two-thirds of paving work, borough to furnish the bricks and pay one-third of the cost. Ordinance ordered to be drafted to cover authorization of this improvement.

It was decided for borough to place another inlet pipe at the Walker garage in order to take care of surplus water at high tide, as on these occasions the water enters and floods the garage.

Speeding signs were ordered to be placed along Susquehanna avenue as far out as the entrance gate to the Park. This seems to be a radical piece of folly as there is no attention paid to the speed signs that have already been placed on the streets in different sections of the town, and it is not likely that autoists will observe those to be posted so far out of police observation.

Street Commissioner Dale was instructed to proceed and erect a fence on the rear line of Park separating from the Irvin line. Also to build fence in the Park in order that automobiles cannot utilize the driveways and walks for a race track or parking ground.

The park committee was duly authorized to make sale of all trees that had been blown down and to clear away all brush and to make several necessary roads and driveways. This is a rehash of a resolution that was passed by Council at a meeting several months ago, but no movement has been made to have it accomplished.

Council authorized the painting on State street, 50 feet west of Filbert street to Walnut street, lines indicating parking stalls.

Final settlement for paving South Filbert street and Susquehanna avenue was made and balance of debt cleared up by payment of $2,032.33, and taking the work off the hands of the contractors.

A number of minor bills for material, repairs and road work, including police salary $100 and street commissioner salary, $100, presented, read and finally ordered to be paid.

Water Commissioner Frankhouser went to a house at Naulton on Monday evening to examine and adjust some pipes. He entered without the formality of knocking. This angered the occupant, Sandro Pinelli, who made an assault with a hatchet. He was brought before 'Squire Dale by Chief Clark and at the hearing the evidence was conclusive enough to hold him for a court trial on the charge of assault and battery. A $200 bail bond was furnished by some friends of Pinelli who had no desire to see him carted off to Fort Lowell.

James L. Smith, wife and children leave for Pittsburgh today via auto. Mr. Smith, we understand, goes to the city to consult a specialist and take a treatment for his nervous condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Davidson and daughter, after a brief visit in Curwensville, departed today for their new home in Chicago. Arch says that the Progress will follow them as the family would not feel at home unless they got the Curwensville news daily.

The Curwensville Progress penman received a letter yesterday for Clair D. Ross, Clearfield, in which he makes this statement: "I noted in the Progress your record of a flock of hens in Curwensville. I have 18 pullets and 4 yearlings, White Leghorn, that laid in May 601 eggs, and from Dec 1 to June 1, 2354 eggs."

Samuel Bowers, of Pittsburgh, a brother of Charles and William Bowers, South Side, is visiting with his mother, Mrs. John Bowers, Scofield street.

Robert Atcheson, a carpenter by profession, will soon commence the erection of a dwelling house on a plot of ground at Reservoir Terrace.

Joe Lines can now be rated as a regular promoter. Monday afternoon he opened up a quick lunch room next to the Norris barber shop. At six o'clock the same day he sold the good will and outfit to Jim Booth and Jos Whittaker, who will make an effort to appease the flagging appetites of all who feel disposed to be fed.

Ira Shaffer and wife went over to DuBois last Saturday and spent several days visiting with a son and daughter who reside in that city of pretension.

An Italian family, Dominico by title, has purchased the Taylor dwelling house on South Filbert street, now occupied by Mr. Edwards.

All Curwensville stores, with a few exceptions perhaps, will close their business places on Thursday afternoons from June until August. Cards are displayed in windows reading to that effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweney motored over to Philipsburg today for the sole purpose of assisting in the eleventh birthday anniversary of their only son, Frederick, who is visiting relatives in that city.

Elliot Kratzer came up from his home in Bedford county yesterday for a visit with his grandfather, Captain J. Elliot Kratzer.

Mrs. Lawrence Dale is reported as being very ill at her home near Bridgeport. Her relatives and friends entertain no hope for recovery.

It's the story of a small town that was asleep until oil was "discovered." The whole plot of the picture is wonderful and 'twill make you laugh.

Wednesday, June 6th.

First came "The Birth of a Nation," which astounded all of us. Then the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," which startled us. This was followed by "Way Down East," a production that thrilled us; but it remained for "Down to the Sea in Ships" to overwhelm us.

IT CONTAINS THE SUPREME THRILL OF PICTURE HISTORY

There never has been, there may never be again, a motion picture that for sheer daring overwhelms the spectator in the manner of "Down to the Sea in Ships." Here is nature at her mightiest; a slip spells death, and events well nigh unbelievable in their terror-inspiring results take place apparently within a few feet of the astounded audience.

Mrs. Edward S. Kelly and little daughter have returned from a several week's visit at Pittsburgh.

Theodore Mitchell has returned to Wilkes Barre having spent several days at his home there.

The Progerss married the wrong fellow yesterday. We had it Russel Shope but the fellow who really carried off a pretty bride yesterday morning was Lloyd Shope.

"Aw, G'wan!"

And park that grouch out in the back yard. If you've had a tough day and feel the need of a "line o' cheer," pull up a chair and read Chaff. You'll find its page of smiles every week in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

And when Chaff has ironed out the worry wrinkles, there are pages and pages of profit and enjoyment left, not only for you, but for all your family.

Just take next week's issue, for example: It will contain pure-fact articles on alfalfa, livestock, poultry, orchards, labor-saving devices, the Tennessee River, what deflation has done to the German farmer, our state blocs and an analysis of how both the farmers and local merchants can make more money if they will get together.

And in the fiction line you will receive, in addition to a gripping short story, another generous installment of Zane Grey's latest success, The Code of the West.

There, in brief, is an outline of the starter you'll get if you give me your order today. And the best part of this National service is that 52 issues cost only a dollar!
